Presents

THE SONGS OF SOLOMON

In this concert LARO will be presenting works of the Jewish composer Salamone Rossi. Rossi worked in the court of Mantua from 1587 to 1628 and gained fame for his madrigals and instrumental music in the emerging early Italian Baroque style. The focus of our concert, however, are pieces from a collection of 33 settings of Hebrew psalms. Rossi set the Hebrew text in the Baroque style instead of a traditional Jewish cantorial setting making them unique among compositions of this period. Pieces from Rossi's published instrumental collections will round out the program.
